

Exploring Privatization in Canadian Primary Care: An Environmental Scan of Primary Care Clinics Accepting Private Payment

Exploration de la privatisation dans les soins primaires au Canada : une analyse de l'environnement des cliniques de soins primaires qui acceptent le paiement privé

AIDAN BODNER, SARAH SPENCER, M. RUTH LAVERGNE AND LINDSAY HEDDEN

Appendix 1

TABLE A1. Common uninsured services

Service grouping
Administrative services
Missed appointments
Prescription renewals
Forms and certificates
Medical-related forms/reports
Diagnostics
Tuberculosis testing
Third-party expertise
Travel health and vaccinations
Minor cosmetic procedures

Sources: Polyclinic 2020; Doctors of BC 2016; Fédération des médecins omnipraticiens du Québec 2020; New Brunswick Medical Society 2019; Nova Scotia Medical Services Insurance 2014.

TABLE A2. Categorical classification of individual services

Service grouping	Individual service
General medical services	Physician assessments
	Genetic health services
	Sports medicine
	Cancer treatment services
	Allergy services
	Sexual health services
	Diagnostic testing services
Alternative medical services	Injection therapies
	Targeted supplement treatments
	Intravenous therapies
	Platelet-rich plasma therapies
	Naturopathic services
	Hormone therapy services
	Acupuncture services
	Osteopathy services
General medical office services	Immunization services
	Ear syringing services
	Medical-related forms
	Wound suturing/removal services
	Abscess drainage services
	Dressing change services
Mental health services	Mental health services
	Cognitive health services
Lifestyle services	Health coaching services
	Weight control programs
	Nutrition programs
	Cosmetic services
	Patient education programs
	Sleep services

Service grouping	Individual service
Medical testing services	Drug or alcohol testing services
	Workplace examinations/independent medical assessments
	Hearing services
	Vision services
	Lab services
Pharmacy services	Pharmacy services
Rehabilitation services	Physiotherapy services
	Chiropractic services
	Massage therapies
Specialty services	Podiatrist services
	Pregnancy/midwife services
	Travel medicine
	Surgeries
	Respiratory services
	Coronary services
	Infectious disease specialists/services
	Ear, nose, throat specialty services
	Pain management services
	Specialist appointments
	Internal medicine services
	Digestive services
	Urology services
	Pediatric services
Dermatology services	