

Associated Medical Services is pleased to invite you to a lecture and reception

“The Clearings of Narrative Medicine”

Rita Charon, MD, PhD

Professor of Clinical Medicine

Director, Program in Narrative Medicine - Columbia University

Former editor-in-chief of the journal Literature and Medicine

Author of Narrative Medicine: Honoring the Stories of Illness

Co-editor of Stories Matter: The Role of Narrative in Medical Ethics

February 23, 2011, 4:30 p.m.

Intercontinental Toronto Yorkville

220 Bloor Street West, Toronto

A reception will follow the lecture

This lecture is part of AMS's continuing work focused on influencing education of health professionals to improve the quality of patient care and contribute to the betterment of the health care system.