

The Medical Devices Special Access Program in Canada: A Scoping Study

Programme canadien d'accès spécial aux instruments médicaux : étude de l'étendue

ROLAND K. MAIER, DEVIDAS MENON AND TANIA STAFINSKI

Appendix 2. Data Extraction Form

Section 1. Document information
Title:
Year of publication:
Publication location: e.g., Journal name, website
Primary author name:
Type of document: e.g., Peer-reviewed journal article, form
Purpose of document: e.g., Demonstration of technology feasibility, guidance on process
Section 2. Contributing author information
Name(s) of author(s) organization(s):
Type of organization: e.g., university, hospital, regulator, industry, academic journal
Financial interest or affiliation by authors: e.g., Funding source stated? Materials from vendor gratis? Not applicable? Other?
Section 3. Special access program (SAP) information
Document statements about SAP: e.g., Role of SAP
Section 4. Technology-specific information (if available)
Date technology was used:	From:	To:
Number of patients:
Device vendor:
Device name:
Device type:
Device classification by practice: e.g., cardiology, surgery, ophthalmology
Device classification by generation: e.g., first generation, device succeeds which predecessor		